

BEAMING BIOECONOMY RESEARCH CLUSTERING EVENT

1 September 2024
hybrid event

The BEAMING Project is organising a hybrid clustering workshop to share knowledge, ideas, and best practices in bioeconomy research. The event aims to bring together representatives of Horizon Europe projects, research organisations, and industry actors to discuss past results, ongoing efforts, and opportunities for future collaboration.

The clustering workshop is organised as a side event of the International Conference on Bio-based Polymers & Composites – BiPoCo 2024 in Esztergom, Hungary. Participants may join the conference for a discounted fee. For details, visit <https://www.bipoco.hu/>.

Main objectives of the event

- highlight the importance of interdisciplinary bioeconomy research
- analyse the outcomes of past projects to identify best practices
- explore synergies among ongoing bioeconomy research projects
- find opportunities for future collaboration
